

2026 GRADE 7 RATIONALIZED ENGLISH SCHEME OF WORK TERM 1

WEEK	LESSON	STRAND	SUB-STRAND	SPECIFIC LEARNING OUTCOME	SUGGESTED LEARNING OUTCOMES	KIQ	LEARNING RESOURCES	ASSESSMENT	REFL
1	1	THEME: PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY. Listening and Speaking.	Conversational Skills: Polite Language .	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) Identify polite expressions used in the introduction of self and others. b) Discuss reasons for using polite language in introductions. c) Acknowledge the use of polite language in introductions.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Make a list of necessary details about people that one needs to know for effective introduction. Brainstorm on different types of introduction. List polite expressions that can be used during the introduction. Match polite expressions to corresponding types of introduction.	Why is it important to be polite while introducing yourself or others?	Digital devices. Skills in English pg 1-2. Charts.	Oral reading. Role play. Oral discussions. Assessment rubric. Checklists. Written test.
	2	Listening and Speaking.	Conversational Skills: Polite Language .	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) Use polite expressions	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Role play different contexts of	What considerations should one make when introducing	Skills in English pg 3 Digital devices. Audio-visual resources.	Role play. Assessment rubric. Checklists. Observation.

				in the introduction of self and others in different speaking contexts. b) Model respectful behavior during introductions.	self-introduction with peers. Brainstorm ways in which one shows respectful behaviour during introductions. Use digital devices to record themselves as they role play. Review an audio or video recording on formal and informal introductions.	ng other people? How would you introduce your parents or guardians to your teachers?		Peer assessment.
3	Reading I	Extensive Reading : Independent reading.	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) Identify a variety of text for independent reading. b) Outline factors to consider when selecting reading materials. c) Set reading goals. d) Acknowledge the importance of setting reading goals.	In groups,pairs,individually,learners are guided to: Brainstorm on the factors to consider when selecting reading materials. Select appropriate reading materials related to personal responsibility. Set and share reading goals for the session. Discuss the books one has read and Keep a journal of their experiences during the reading session.	What do you consider while selecting reading materials ?	Skills in English pg 4 and 7 Digital devices. story books.	Assessment rubric. Oral questions. Checklists. Journals. Oral discussions.

	4	Reading I	Extensive Reading: Independent reading.	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) Read selected materials for information and enjoyment. b) Appreciate the value of independent reading in lifelong learning.	In pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Read the selected material on Personal Responsibility in learners book loudly. Answer the questions on the passage. Observe good reading habits while reading the passage.	How can you ensure you benefit from a reading session?	Skills in English pg 4-6. Dictionaries.	Observation. Assessment rubric. Written test. Checklists. Learners summary of what they read. Question and answers.
	5	Grammar in use.	Word classes : Nouns.	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) Define the term noun. b) Identify the different types of nouns from a print or digital text. c) Acknowledge the different types of nouns.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Identify and discuss the types of nouns and give examples in each. Mention examples of common, proper, abstract and concrete nouns in the school and classroom. Read a print or non-print text and identify common, proper, concrete and abstract nouns.	What is a noun? Why is it important to identify items by name?	Skills in English pg 8-9 Realia. Digital devices. Print texts.	Assessment rubric. Written test. Oral questions.

2	1	Grammar in Use.	Word Classes: Nouns.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Use different types of nouns in sentences. b) Appreciate the role of correct grammar in written and spoken communication.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Search online for examples of the common, proper, concrete and abstract nouns and compile a list of the nouns in groups. Construct sentences using common, proper, abstract and concrete nouns. Engage in language games such as word puzzle, scrabble and guessing games. Write and display poems featuring the different types of nouns.	Why is knowledge on use of capital letters useful? Why should we use capital letters in certain nouns?	Skills in English pg 9-10. Digital devices Word puzzles. Poems.	Assessment rubric. Written test. Oral questions. Checklists.
	2	Reading.	Intensive Reading: Trickster Narratives.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Explain what is a trickster narrative. b) Identify the main events in trickster narratives. c) Analyse the characters	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Engage in pre-reading activities such as previewing the title of the narrative, using the picture clues and brainstorming. Recount the events in the	What is a trickster narrative? Who is a trickster and dupe in a trickster narrative? What can we learn from narratives?	Skills in English pg 10-13.	Oral questions. Assessment rubric. Written test. Checklists.

				in narratives. d) Appreciate the importance of trickster narratives in the inculcation of values.	trickster narrative and highlight the trick in the narrative. Discuss the various character traits displayed by characters. Brainstorm on the moral lessons of the narrative. Relate characters and events in the trickster narrative to real life situations. Explore and share with group members how personal responsibility can be derived from the narratives moral lessons.
3	Writing.	Handwriting : Legibility and Neatness.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able: a) Identify and describe the features of legible and neat handwriting for efficient writing. b) Outline the importance of developing	In pairs, groups, individually, learners are guided to: Study written samples of legible and neat handwriting featuring all letters of the alphabet and short texts. Discuss the features of legible and neat handwriting including	Why should we learn to write legibly and clearly? What kind of misunderstanding could arise as a result of bad handwriting?	Skills in English pg 13-14. Charts Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Writing assessment. Checklists.

				legible and neat handwriting . c) Write texts legibly and neatly. d) Acknowledge the importance of writing neatly and legibly.	shaping letters,joining letters and words. Practice handwriting games such as blind writing,speed writing and letter stations. Suggest ways of correcting bad handwriting habits such as joining letters and words inappropriately. Copy given texts on the theme of personal responsibility on charts and display for peer evaluation and correction.	How can you make your handwriting presentable?
4	THEME:SCIENCE AND HEALTH EDUCATION. LISTENING AND SPEAKING.	Oral Presentations:Oral Narratives.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Outline the oral narrative performance techniques/skills during the performance. b) Use oral narrative	In groups,pairs,learners are guided to: Watch live or recorded oral performance of narratives as a class. Search online or offline for information on performance techniques.	What is an oral narrative? How can you become a good storyteller ? Which skills are used in performing oral narratives ?	Skills in English pg 16-18. Digital devices. Songs.	Oral presentation. Assessment rubric. Role play. Written tests.

				techniques during the performance. c) Appreciate the importance of performance techniques in the successful delivery of oral material.	Discuss the oral performance techniques. Perform oral narratives, watch and record. Compose oral narratives and suggest ways of performing them.
5	Reading.	Intensive reading: Simple poems.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Distinguish between poems and other literary genres. b) Outline features that makes reading simple poems interesting. c) Search internet for features of poems that makes them interesting. d) Acknowledge the features of poems.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Brainstorm the features of poems that distinguishes them from oral narratives. Listen and respond to live or recorded poetry recitation. Discuss what makes reading simple poems interesting. Use digital devices to search for differences between poems and other literary genres.	How are poems different from stories? Why would you use a poem instead of a story to pass a message?	Skills in English pg 18. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Written tests. Oral questions.

3	1	Grammar in Use.	Word Classes:N ouns.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Identify count,non-c ount ,singular and plural nouns from a variety of texts. b) Categorise the identified nouns as either count,non-c ount,singula r or plural nouns. c) Enjoy categorizing the different nouns as either count,non-c ount or singular and plural.	In groups,pairs,indi vidualy,learners are guided to: Explain what are count and non-count nouns. Search for examples of the count,non-count, singular and plural nouns from the internet and write them on charts. Identify objects in the classroom and categorise them as count or non-count nouns. Listen to an audio text on the theme of science and health education and pick out the target nouns. Pick out count ,non-count,singul ar and plural from magazines and magazines articles.	Why are some things impossibl e to count? How can you group things that cannot be counted?	Digital devices. Skills in English pg 20-21. Magazines and Newspapers.	Assessment rubric. Oral report. Checklists. Written tests
	2	Grammar in Use.	Word Classes:N ouns.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Use count,non-c ount,singula r and plural	In groups,pairs,indi vidualy,learners are guided to: Construct sentences using the specified types of nouns	Why should you specify the number of things you require to	Posters. Digital devices. Word puzzle. Skills in English pg 22-23.	Assessment rubric. Written tests. Oral questions. Checklists.

				nouns in sentences. b) Change singular nouns to plural and vice versa. c) Appreciate the importance of the correct use of nouns in communications.	orally and in writing. Change singular nouns into plural and vice versa. Complete crossword puzzles with the target nouns. Create posters and poems using the learnt nouns and post on the classroom wall.	accomplish a task?
3	Reading.	Intensive reading: Simple poems.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Recite a variety of simple poems for enjoyment. b) Collaborate in poetry recitation for enjoyment and learning.	In groups, pairs, learners are guided to: Pick out poems from a variety of texts and read them aloud. Recite the poem Did you hear? in learners book. Recite poems that address science and health issues such as HIV and AIDS. Provide feedback to peers and seek help where necessary.	What makes poems interesting?	Poems. Digital devices. Skills in English pg 19-20.	Assessment rubric. Observations. Oral presentations. Checklists.
4	Writing.	Mechanics of writing: Punctuation Marks.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Read print or non-print texts	Why is it important to punctuate a text?	Skills in English pg 26-27. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Peer assessment. Written text.

				a) Recognize the full stop,exclamation mark and question mark in texts. b) Outline the uses of exclamation mark,question mark and full stop. c) Punctuate texts correctly using exclamation mark,question mark and full stop. d) Acknowledge the importance of exclamation , question marks and full stops in texts.	and identify the full stop,exclamation mark and question mark. Punctuate texts using the target punctuation marks. Role play well-punctuated dialogues and record themselves.		Print and non-print texts.	Checklists.
5	Writing.	Mechanics of writing:Punctuation Marks.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Use full stop,exclamation mark and question mark in sentences.	In groups,pairs,individually,learners are guided to: Construct correct sentences using full stop,exclamation mark and question mark. Write a dialogue or short story on	Which punctuation marks do you use in writing?	Charts and Posters. Skills in English pg 27-28. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Checklists. Peers assessment. Written texts. Oral presentation.

				b) Discuss the effectiveness of punctuation marks in expressing meaning. c) Acknowledge the importance of punctuating sentences accurately.	the theme Science and Health Education and use full stop, exclamation and question mark where necessary. Make posters or charts with sentences about Science and Health Education and display them in class for peers to review and do revision.
4	1	Reading.	Intensive Reading: Class Reader.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Explain the different parts that aid in previewing a book. b) Outline the outstanding features of a class reader. c) Appreciate the importance of class leaders.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Brainstorm the meaning of: class reader, blurb and preview. Study the cover page, read the blurb and highlight the outstanding features. Discuss the title of the class reader.	What would you consider when designing the cover of a book? Why do we read storybooks? What is a class reader?	Class reader. Skills in English pg 23-24. Digital devices. Dictionaries. Story books.	Assessment rubric. Written test. Oral questions.
	2	Reading.	Intensive Reading: Class Reader.	By the end of the lesson, the learner	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to:	What is a setting? Why should we	Skills in English pg 25-26.	Assessment rubric.

				should be able to: a) Describe the author and the setting of the text in terms of time and place. b) Underscore the value of reading for lifelong learning.	Design a graphic organizer such as a mind map and tree map to identify the setting. Identify words,images and details that describe the setting in terms of place and time. Create ,share and give feedback using summary charts such as what I know-where I learned it-what I want to know-what I learned (K-W-W-L) chart ,to visualize what has been learned. Make short notes on the setting and the author.	not judge a book by its cover?		Learners journals and portfolios. Oral presentations.
3	THEME:HYGIENE. Listening and Speaking.	Listening for Information and the main idea.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Listen for specific information from an audio recording. b) Identify the main ideas from varied	In groups,pairs,individually,learners are guided to: Listen to audio recordings on Hygiene and identify the main idea. Listen for specific information from the audio	Why is it important to get the main points from an oral text? What is a main idea? Which words are used to introduce	Skills in English pg 29-30. Audio resources. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Checklists. Oral presentation. Peer assessment. Written test.

				descriptive texts. c) Appreciate the importance of listening attentively.	recording and take notes. Use diagrams to identify the main idea in the recording.	the main idea?
4	Listening and Speaking.	Listening for Information and the main idea.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Identify expressions that signal the main idea. b) Pick out specific information from varied descriptive texts. c) Acknowledge the importance of listening skills in communication.	In groups,pairs,learners are guided to: Search online or offline for expressions that signal the main idea and list them down. Use the expressions to identify the main ideas from texts given by the teacher. Watch a video describing a process,a person or an object and pick out specific information. Discuss the strategies one can use to get the main points from a speaker.	Why is it important to understand the main points from an oral text? What can you do to get the main point from a speaker?	Videos. Digital devices. Skills in English pg 30.	Assessment rubric. Oral questions. Written tests Writing summary. Oral discussions.
5	Grammar in Use.	Word classes: Verbs and tense.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Explain the meaning of regular and irregular	In groups,pairs,individually,leaners are guided to: Discuss what are:verbs,regular and irregular verbs.	What is verb? What is a regular and irregular verbs?	Skills in English pg 34. Digital devices. Dictionaries.	Assessment rubric. Written test. Oral presentation and questions.

				verbs and give examples. b) Identify regular and irregular in sentences. c) Construct correct sentences using regular and irregular verbs. d) Appreciate the importance of verbs.	Give examples of regular and irregular verbs. Identify and group verbs with similar endings from passages on the theme of hygiene. Indicate whether verbs are regular or irregular. Construct sentences using the regular and irregular verbs.	How did you spend the last holiday?		Checklists.
5	1	Grammar in Use.	Word classes: Verbs and tense.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able: a) Explain what are past tense, future tense and present tense and cite examples. b) Identify the tenses of the verbs in sentences. c) Construct sentences using the past, present and future tense. d) Appreciate the correct use of verbs	In pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Discuss about past, future and present tenses and give examples. Identify the tenses of the verbs in sentences. Construct sentences using verbs in the correct tenses.	Which misunderstanding can arise when people use wrong tense?	Skills in English pg 35. Dictionaries.	Assessment rubric. Written test. Checklists. Oral questions.

				and tense for effective communication.
2	Reading.	Reading for information and Meaning.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:	a) Distinguish between reading for information and reading for meaning. b) Pick out information from varied texts. c) Use the new words and phrases in sentences. d) Appreciate the importance of reading for information and meaning.	In pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Identify and discuss the differences between reading for information and reading for meaning. Scan through a text and identify text features such as title, subtitles Infer and share the meaning of words from the context. Construct sentences using new words and phrases. Fill in crossword puzzles using new words learned.	Why do we read texts? How would you tell the meaning of a word in a passage?	Skills in English pg 31-33. Word puzzles. Dictionaries.	Assessment rubric. Written test. Checklists.
3	Writing.	Writing Narrative Paragraphs.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:	a) Identify the parts of a narrative paragraph. b) Compose a narrative	In pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Identify parts of a well-written paragraph specifically, an introduction, necessary details and a conclusion.	What are the parts of a paragraph? Why do we write paragraphs?	Skills in English pg 39-40. Digital devices.	Peer assessment . Assessment rubric. Writing assessment. Checklists.

				paragraph with the appropriate structure. c) Acknowledge the significance of paragraphing in written communication.	Read samples of narrative paragraphs provided by the teacher and discuss the flow of ideas. Write a paragraph using a digital device about hygiene, safety and security. Present the paragraphs in class for peer review.
	4	Reading.	Intensive reading: Poetry.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) State the parts of a poem, b) Identify the features of poems. c) Read the poems in learners book and answer the questions. d) Acknowledge the different features of poems.	In groups, pairs, learners are guided to: Identify and discuss the features of poems Brainstorm and Discuss the parts of poems. Read the poems in learners book and answer the questions. Search online or offline for different poems and note the titles and poets.	What are the parts of a poem? What makes a poem interesting? Why do people write poems?	Skills in English pg 36-37. Poems. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Oral questions. Written texts.
	5	Reading.	Intensive reading: Poetry.	By the end of the lesson, the learner	In groups, pairs, learners are guided to:	How can repetition and rhyme be used to	Skills in English pg 38-39	Assessment rubric. Oral questions.

				should be able to: a) Explain the structure of poems. b) Analyse the structure of varied simple poems. c) Appreciate the poems structure in communicating a message?	Study varied poems and present their different structures in graphic organisers. Analyse how poems are broken into stanzas and stanzas into lines. Compare the structures of different poems. Relate the poems structure to the poems message.	bring out a message in a poem? What are the elements in a poems structure?	Digital devices. Charts. Poems.	Checklists. Written tests.
6	1	THEME:LEADERSHIP. Grammar.	Word Classes: Verbs and Tense.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) State how simple past tense and simple present tense are formed. b) Identify verbs in the simple present and simple past tense in a text. c) Acknowledged the use	In pairs,individually ,learners are guided to: Discuss how simple present and simple past tense are formed. Identify and underline verbs in simple present and simple past tense in a text. Reflect on the formation of simple present and simple past tense form of verbs.	Why is it necessary to indicate when an activity takes place?	Skills in English pg 46-47. Charts. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Written test. Oral discussions.

				of verbs in simple present and past tense in texts.	Create and display charts showing words in their simple present and simple past tense.
2	Grammar.	Word Classes: Verbs and Tense.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Write sentences in the simple present and simple past tense. b) Advocate appropriate use of tense in communication.	In pairs, groups, individually, learners are guided to: Construct and share sentences on a variety of issues including leadership in school, using verbs in the appropriate tense. Type the constructed sentences using digital devices. Complete sentences using the correct tense of the given verbs. Play language games using verbs in the simple present and past tense.	What makes correct use of tense difficult for some people?	Skills in English pg 47-48. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Written tests. Language games. Checklists. Oral presentations.
3	Listening and Speaking.	Listening Comprehension: Selective Listening.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Distinguish between specific and	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Outline the difference between general	Why is it important to get the main points from an oral text? What is the	Skills in English pg 41. Audio recordings. Teachers guide.	Assessment rubric. Oral discussions. Oral questions.

				general information from a listening text. b) Select specific information from a listening text. c) Develop good listening skills so as to identify specific information.	and specific information. Listen to an audio text and decide whether the information presented is specific or general.	difference between specific and general information?
4	Listening and Speaking.	Listening Comprehension: Selective Listening.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Listen and respond to texts on leadership. b) State the importance of listening skills. c) Emphasize the value of listening skills in communication.	In pairs, groups, individually, learners are guided to: Listen to a passage on leadership and answer questions posed by the speaker. Listen to a role play and respond to questions . Search online for audio recordings on leadership and attentively listen to text for specific information. Watch a video of a leader giving a speech and state the general and specific information.	What can you do to ensure you capture the relevant information from a speaker?	Skills in English pg 42. Digital devices. Teachers guide.	Assessment rubric. Oral discussions. Oral presentations. Questions and answers.

	5	Reading.	Intensive Reading.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Identify the reading strategies used in reading activities. b) Discuss the identified reading strategies. c) Select the main ideas and details from a variety of written texts. d) Apply the different reading strategies in reading books.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Search online and watch appropriate video clips on selected reading strategies: reading for main ideas and reading for details. Explain the selected reading strategies that are reading for main ideas and reading for details. Share ideas on how they can use the selected reading strategies to identify the main idea and details from texts.	What can one do to understand a text better? Why should one read for main ideas?	Skills in English pg 42-43.	Assessment rubric. Checklists. Written tests. Oral discussions.
7	1	Reading.	Intensive reading.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Read and underline the main ideas in texts. b) Acknowledge the importance of reading for main	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Read and underline the main ideas and details in texts on issues such as gender roles in leadership and review each others work. Fill in substitution	How can you improve your reading?	Skills in English pg 43-45. Substitution tables. Mind maps. Digital devices. Print texts.	Assessment rubric. Peer assessment. Written text. Oral discussions.

				ideas and details as a comprehension skill.	tables with specific details from texts. Complete a mind map with a focus on the main idea and details.
2	Writing.	Paragraphing: Using examples and incidents.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Identify the parts of a paragraph. b) Discuss the different parts of a paragraph. c) Outline examples and incidents to include in a paragraph. d) Acknowledge the different parts of paragraphs.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Discuss things one should be aware of when writing paragraphs. Discuss the parts of a paragraph using different texts. Identify sentences that describes incidents and give examples from written texts. Search from books or internet for information about using examples and incidents in a paragraph.	How can you organize your ideas logically?	Digital devices. Written texts. Skills in English pg 51.	Assessment rubric. Oral discussions. Checklists. Oral questions.
3	Writing.	Paragraphing: Using examples and incidents.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Create a well-developed	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Share ideas on examples and incidents that can	Why should we write coherently?	Sample paragraphs. Teachers guide. Skills in English pg 51-52.	Assessment rubric. Writing assessments. Peer assessment.

				paragraph using examples and incidents. b) Appreciate the importance of well-written paragraphs in writing.	be included in a paragraph. Develop a paragraph on leadership using the ideas generated. Present their paragraphs in class for peer review. Use mind maps to generate examples and incidents for sample paragraphs. Compose a paragraph based on suggested examples and incidents.		Mind maps. Digital resources.	Checklists.
4	Reading.	Intensive Reading: Class Readers.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Identify the main characters in a class reader. b) Explain how the characters make the story flow. c) Enjoy reading and identifying characters in class readers.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Read a section of a class reader and identify the main characters. Outline the things done by each character studied in the section. Discuss how the characters make the story flow. Write a summary about how the main characters	How can you tell a main character in a story? How do characters develop a story?	Digital devices. Class readers. Skills in English pg 48-50. Teachers guide.	Assessment rubric. Oral questions. Oral discussions. Writing summary. Checklists.

					make the story flow.
	5	Reading.	Intensive Reading: Class Readers.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Outline things to consider when choosing a storybook to read. b) Make predictions based on the title and sections read. c) Appreciate the role of characters in the class reader.	In groups, pairs, learners are guided to: Participate in a readers theatre and read portions of the class readers. Make predictions based on the title and sections of a class reader read. Discuss the predictions made from a title and sections read.	Why are some stories usually more interesting than others? What should you consider when selecting a storybook to read?	Class readers. Digital devices. Dictionaries. Skills in English pg 50.	Oral discussions. Assessment rubric. Oral questions.
8	MID-TERM BREAK
9	1	THEME: FAMILY. Listening and Speaking.	Pronunciation: Sounds and Word Stress.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Identify the consonant and vowel sounds in words. b) Articulate consonants and vowel sounds for oral fluency.	In pairs, individually, groups, learners are guided to: Practice pronouncing minimal pairs containing the target sounds. Pronounce the consonant sounds /p/, /b/, /k/ and /g/ from Practise saying words with the sounds /p/, /b/, /k/, /g/, /i/	Why is it important to articulate sounds correctly?	Skills in English pg 53-54. Digital devices. Dictionaries. Audio-visual recordings.	Assessment rubric. Audio recordings. Oral presentations. Peer and self assessment.

					and /I/ as in seen correctly. Practise saying the short /i/ and the long /i/ sounds. Make a recording featuring learned sounds. Watch and listen to an audio-visual recording featuring selected consonants and vowel sounds.
2	Listening and Speaking.	Pronunciation: Sounds and Word Stress.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Explain what is stress. b) Distinguish the meaning of words on the basis of stress. c) Advocate the role of correct pronunciation in communication.	In pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Discuss what is stress and syllable.. Distinguish the meaning of words based on stress for example: project(verb) project(noun). Play language games to distinguish word meaning on basis of stress. Complete sentences correctly using words on the basis of stress.	What is stress and syllable? How can we improve our pronunciation?	Skills in English pg 55. Digital devices. Dictionaries. Audio-visual resources.	Assessment rubric. Written tests. Oral presentations. Peer assessment.

	3	Reading.	Intensive Reading: Oral Narratives.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Define what are legends. b) Identify heroic characters in legends. c) Explain the moral lessons in legends. d) Relate the characters in the legends to real life.	In groups, individually, learners are guided to: Brainstorm on what are legends. Read a heroic narrative (legend) aloud in turns. Identify the characters in legends. Identify and discuss the moral lessons learned from legends. Predict the actions of characters in legends. Reflect on the impact of their actions in the society.	What is a legend? Why are heroes celebrated? Why are some people considered heroic?	Skills in English pg 60-62. Digital devices. Legends.	Assessment rubric. Oral discussions. Oral questions . Written tests.
	4	Reading.	Intensive Reading: Oral Narratives.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) State the benefits of moral lessons to the community. b) Outline ways in which oral narratives	In groups, pairs, learners are guided to: Discuss why legends are important in various communities. Identify and discuss ways/methods to collect oral	What heroic acts have been done in your school or community? What challenges might one face when collecting narratives	Skills in English pg 62-63. Digital devices. Mind maps.	Assessment rubric. Writing assessment. Oral discussions.

				can be collected. c) Creatively develop a legend narrative. d) Enjoy creating legend narratives from their communities.	narratives from communities. Use a mind map to show how the moral lessons in narratives can benefit the community. Develop a legend narrative.	from the community?
5	Grammar in Use.	Word classes: Comparative and Superlative Adjectives.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Explain what are comparative and superlative adjectives. b) Discuss how comparative and superlative adjectives are formed. c) Identify comparative and superlative adjectives in texts. d) Acknowledge the importance of comparative and superlative adjectives in texts.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Discuss how comparative and superlative adjectives are formed. Identify comparative and superlative adjectives from texts. Search online or offline for examples of comparative and superlative adjectives. Make a list of the adjectives found.	How do we compare different people, places and things?	Skills in English pg 58-59. Digital devices. Charts.	Assessment rubric. Written tests. Checklists. Oral questions.

10	1	Grammar in Use.	Word classes: Comparative and Superlative Adjectives.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Use comparative and superlative adjectives in communication. b) Construct correct sentences using comparative and superlative adjectives. c) Acknowledge the value of comparative and superlative forms of adjectives in communication.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Construct sentences using comparative and superlative adjectives searched in the previous lesson. Use substitution tables to complete sentences featuring comparative and superlative adjectives. Play language games featuring adjectives. Prepare and use flashcards to categorise comparative and superlative adjectives.	Why are comparisons important in life?	Skills in English pg 59-60. Flashcards. Substitution tables. Language games.	Assessment rubric. Substitution tables. Written tests. Language games.
	2	Writing.	Functional writing: Friendly Letters.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Identify the parts of a friendly letter. b) Compose a friendly letter using	In pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Identify, discuss and underline the parts of friendly letters. Read sample friendly letters.	Why do we write friendly letters? When do we write friendly letters?	Skills in English pg 63-64. Sample Friendly Letters. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Writing assessment. Peer assessment.

				the correct format. c) Appreciate the role of friendly letters in communication.	Create a friendly letter. Exchange the friendly letter with peer for feedback. Incorporate the feedback obtained from the peer. Use digital devices to type the friendly letter and share it. Write the friendly letter on a manilla paper for display on a chart.
3	Reading.	Study Skills : Synonyms and Antonyms.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Explain what are synonyms and antonyms and give examples. b) Identify synonyms and antonyms of words from written texts. c) Spell synonyms and antonyms correctly for	In pairs, groups, individually, learners are guided to: Use dictionary or digital devices to find the meaning of synonyms and antonyms. Search for synonyms and antonyms from print and digital devices. Identify synonyms and antonyms of words from written texts. Match words with their synonyms and	Why do we use antonyms and synonyms ? What are synonyms and antonyms ?	Skills in English pg 56-57. Dictionaries. Digital devices. Print texts.	Assessment rubric. Written texts. Oral questions.

				written fluency.	antonyms from a list of words. Practise pronouncing the synonyms and antonyms. Use reference materials such as dictionary to locate synonyms and antonyms. List synonyms and antonyms and then create a chart.
4	Reading.	Study Skills: Synonyms and Antonyms.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:	a) Use synonyms and antonyms in sentences. b) Appreciate the importance of correct use of words in communication.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Display a chart with antonyms and synonyms of words correctly spelled. Use synonyms and antonyms to construct sentences. Create a crossword puzzle using synonyms and antonyms and share it online. Practice pronouncing the synonyms and antonyms.	Why is it important to spell words correctly?	Skills in English pg 57-58. Word puzzles. Dictionaries. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Written tests. Checklists. Oral questions. Matching tables. Peer assessment.
5	THEME: DRUG AND	Conversation Skills.	By the end of the lesson, the	In pairs, groups or		How can you interrupt	Skills in English pg 65-66.	Assessment rubric.

		SUBSTANCE ABUSE. Listening and Speaking.		learner should be able to: a) Identify verbal and non-verbal forms of polite interruptions. b) Use verbal and non-verbal cues to interrupt a conversation politely. c) Acknowledge the use of verbal and nonverbal cues in interrupting conversations politely.	individually, learners are guided to: Practice interrupting someone politely. List phrases and expressions used in polite interruptions. Watch a dialogue and identify verbal and non-verbal forms of polite interruption and turn-taking skills. Make posters showing polite expressions as well as ways of interrupting someone politely.	a conversation politely?	Digital devices. Posters/charts.	Role play. Dialogues. Oral presentations.
11	1	Listening and Speaking.	Conversation Skills.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Apply turn-taking skills in different speaking contexts. b) Use digital devices to record themselves as they turn take in different	In groups, pairs, learners are guided to ; Practise turn taking and polite interruptions in dialogues. Role play a dialogue on the effects of drug and substance abuse. Recite a conversational (choral) verse ,make an audio	Why should people speak one at a time in a conversation? How can you ensure that you do not dominate a conversation?	Skills in English pg 66-67. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Dialogues. Oral presentations. Role play.

				speaking contexts. c) Acknowledge the importance of politeness in communication.	or video recording .
2	Grammar in Use.	Word classes:Adverbs.	By the end of the lesson,the learner should be able to: a) Define what is an adverb. b) Identify adverbs of time,place and manner in texts. c) Group adverbs of time,place and manner from a list of words. d) Enjoy grouping the different types of adverbs.	In pairs,individually ,learners are guided to: Explain the meaning of adverb and give examples. Search online or offline for adverbs of time,place and manner. List the adverbs and make charts showing the adverbs of time,place and manner. Read a print text on drug and substance abuse and identify the adverbs of time,place and manner. Categorize adverbs of time,place and manner from word lists or flashcards.	What is an adverb?	Skills in English pg 71-72. Digital devices. Print texts. Charts . Flashcards. Word list.	Assessment rubric. Written tsts. Oral questions. Checklists.

3	Grammar in Use.	Word classes: Adverbs.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Use adverbs of time, place and manner in different contexts. b) Construct sentences using adverbs of time, place and manner. c) Acknowledge the value of adverbs of time, place and manner in communication.	In pairs, groups, individually, learners are guided to: Construct sentences using adverbs of time, place and manner. Use adverbs of time, place and manner in a role play and record the role play. Play a game using the adverbs of time, place and manner.	Why is it important to describe where, when and how something happens?	Skills in English pg 72-73. Digital devices. Games.	Assessment rubric. Role play. Oral presentations. Observation.
4	Reading.	Reading: Fluency.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Explain the terms: fluency, reading accurately and reading with expression. b) Identify instances of expressive reading from a reading or digital text.	In groups, pairs, individually, learners are guided to: Watch news clips from a favourite television programme/presenter and comment on the presenters speed, accuracy and expression. Reflect on the qualities of a good reader.	Why is it important to read fluently?	Skills in English pg 67-69. Digital devices. Print texts.	Assessment rubric. Checklists. Oral discussions. Observation.

				c) Acknowledge the qualities of a good reader.	Brainstorm on ways of reading effectively. Read the passage “where is Jacob” with the appropriate expressions, right speed and with accuracy.
	5	Reading.	Reading: Fluency.	By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: a) Read texts at the right speed, accurately and with expression. b) Appreciate the importance of reading fluency in communication.	In groups, pairs, learners are guided to: Read texts and identify expressive reading. Read a choral verse and pay attention to speed, accuracy and expression. Time himself or herself while reading an excerpt of a text. Engage in a readers theatre and read and dramatise a dialogue. Listen to a text read by a peer and provide feedback.	How does the appropriate use of verbal and non-verbal cues enhance reading fluency?	Skills in English pg 69-70. Dialogues. Poem. Written texts. Choral verse. Digital devices.	Assessment rubric. Oral presentations. Peer assessment. Checklists.
12	REVISION
13	ASSESSMENT.								