

News

Raila triggers storm with call for more mandate and pension to governors

Devolution: Page 4-5

Sports

McCarthy eyes Group A top spot as Stars face Zambia at Kasarani

CHAN: Page 32

FRESH, INDEPENDENT, DIFFERENT

NO. 5504
SATURDAY/SUNDAY
AUGUST 16-17, 2025
www.the-star.co.ke

KSh60/00 (Tsh 1,000 Ush2,000)

weekend STAR

Beijing terms America stance relic of 'Cold War mentality'

CHINA FIRES AT USA AS TUSSLE OVER KENYAN TIES DEEPENS

Story Page 2

Ruto meets Abagusii grassroots leaders

SHAKE A LEG: President William Ruto and grassroots leaders from Nyamira and Kisii counties join Kisii artist Babu G in a dance during a meeting at State House, Nairobi, on Friday /EDWARD ALUSA /PCS

Bodies of crash victims at the Jaramogi Oginga Odinga Teaching and Referral Hospital morgue /FAITH MATETE

22 Kisumu crash victims to be buried in Nyakach village mass grave

A sombre cloud hangs over Nyakach in Kisumu county as families prepare for the burial of 22 victims of the Kisumu-Kakamega highway crash, this Saturday, in Koguta village. The victims, mostly relatives and close friends, will be laid to rest after a joint funeral service at Naki Primary School. They were among 26 people who died when a bus they were travelling in lost control at the Coptic roundabout, just outside Kisumu City, and plunged into a ditch.

STORY PAGE 3

Landmark: High Court orders the recognition of transgender

The High Court in Eldoret has ordered the state to officially recognise the transgender community as the third gender. Justice Reuben Nyakundi directed that the Intersex Persons Bill, 2024 be amended to identify the rights of the transgender community. Nyakundi also recommended the enactment of a Transgender Protection Rights Act to ensure equal protection and recognition for transgender persons.

STORY PAGE 9

KENYAN Quiz!

PAGE 13